

Listowel

DEATHS: The death has taken place in Kildare of Eleanor Culbert (nee Moore) formerly of Charles Street, Listowel. A large crowd from Listowel travelled to Newbridge, Co Kildare on Sunday for the removal of her remains to the local Church.

Eleanor was a well liked person and always in good spirits. She loved her native Listowel and was a frequent visitor to her home in the Boro.

She is survived by her husband Con, son, daughter, her father Jackie, brothers, Jimmy, Tommy and John, relatives and a large circle of friends. Sincere sympathy is extended to all.

EMMETS: All roads lead to Ballylongford again this Sunday when Emmets take on Ballyduff in the replay of this years NK championship semi-final.

A late goal on Sunday for Ballyduff denied Emmets a place in the final where Finuge eagerly await the winners. The first semi-final saw Finuge defeat St Senans by four points in Frank Sheehy Park on Saturday.

It was draws all round on Sunday, as Emmets C and Asdee B also ended all square in the Novice final.

GIRLS FOOTBALL: The eagerly awaited U14 final between Emmets and Beale will take place on this Saturday here in Frank