DEATH OF MR. H. CULBERT, NENAGH.

It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mr Henry Culbert, of the Abbey House, Nenagh, which took place on Monday evening last, after a few months' illness, at the age of 68 years.

Mr. Culbert being a man of a very kindly and upright disposition and all who had dealings with him found him to be a courteous and straightforward business man. THURLES NOTES

REFERRED TO MINISTER

Justice Flood referred to the Minister for Industry and Commerce a case at the District Court on Wednesday, in which Mrs. Mary Quinn, Castle Avenue, was summoned to recover £4 10s. 2d. stated to be in respect of an employee named Margaret Mary Hayden, under the National Health and Unemployment Insurance Acts. Mr E. J. Ryan (for Mr. Jas. O'Brien, State solicitor), was for the prosecution, and Mr. J. P. Carrigan, for defendant. The point raised for the defence was that defendant, who keeps boarders was not solely dependent on them for a livelihood, that she had private means, and that the maid only did odd jobs.

NIGHT WORK IN A BAKERY

Holding that times were difficult and that trade was hit for want of coal, due to the war, the Justice dismissed a summons against Edmond Sweeney, baker, Mitchel St., for having men employed at night for the manufacture of bread contrary to the provisions of the new regulations governing the working of bakeries. Supt. Desmond stated that only preparatory work could be done between the hours of 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., such as making dough and setting fires. Three men were found taking fresh bread from an ovens showed that manufacturing had been proceeding. The defence was that the proper type of coal could not be got, that coke had to be used, and that it was necessary to do the night work if bread was to be produced at all.

NIGHT NOISES

Two men from Holycross and Boherlahan districts were bound over for having been guilty of disorderly conduct, singing and shouting at 2 a.m. on the public street. Supt. Desmond said that people could not sleep with the noises, and the summonses were brought as a warning.
