

CULBERT—CONNOLLY

The marriage was solemnised at the Church of the Holy Family, Waterford, on Monday last, of Mr. John Culbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Culbert, 41, O'Connell Road, Tipperary, and Miss Nora Connolly, daughter of Mrs. A. Connolly, 29, Dominic Place, Waterford, and the late Mr. John Connolly.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Michael Farrell, C.C., was followed by Nuptial Mass. The Papal Blessing was imparted.

The bride, who was attractively attired in a blue suit, with harmonising headdress, carried a bridal missal and a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Connolly (sister of the bride) wore a navy-coloured suit and carried a prayer book.

The best man was Mr. Harry Culbert (bridegroom's brother).

Following a reception and breakfast at Dooley's Hotel, at which upwards of forty guests attended, the happy couple left for Dublin on the honeymoon.

The bridegroom is attached to the clerical staff of the North Station, C.I.E., and his bride, prior to her marriage, was employed at the Savoy Cafe, Broad Street, Waterford.

STORAN—HALLEY

Rev. J. P. Walsh, C.C., Ballybricken, officiated at the marriage which was solemnised with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing at Ballybricken Church on Monday between Mr. James Storan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Storan, Morrisson's Road, Waterford, and Miss Elizabeth Halley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Halley, 41 Lower Yellow Road, do.

Mr. Richard Storan (brother of the bridegroom), was best man, and the bridesmaid was Miss P. Halley (bride's sister).

The bride presented a charming picture attired in a costume of pale blue, with headdress to tone. She carried a bridal missal. The bridesmaid's costume was of grey with contrasting head-dress. She also carried a missal.

A reception was held at the Bridge Hotel, following which the happy couple left on the honeymoon which is being spent in London.

Mr. Storan, who is a well-known local figure in association football circles, is the proprietor of a progressive gent's hairdressing salon at the Glen, Waterford, while his bride, prior to her marriage, was a member of the staff of Messrs. H. Denny and Sons, Morgan Street.
